

Roni Gueron and Bian Daher, both students at Oranim College, travelled to Lucerne, Switzerland to practice teach in local middle schools there, as part of Oranim's partnership with the University of Teacher Education Lucerne. Oranim International School wishes them the best of luck in their travels and a sweet new year!